THE PRIMARIES, SATURDAY, JUNE 9th.

The primary meetings of the Democracy of Hickman and Fulton, for the appointment of delegates to the Maycon convention on the 20th inst., were held at 2 o'clock, on the evening of Saturday, June 9th—only a little over two weeks off.

These meetings were organized by the selection of a Chairman and Secretary, and the voting was conducted in such manner as the voters present may elect.

It is more than likely, that the names of different favorites will be presented to the Convention. Hence, the names of the delegates, that are equally as right and admissible, as it is equally so that they can send them without infringing on their desire. The point to be

THE EUROPEAN SITUATION.

In a single-handed contest between Russia and Turkey, the former would be victorious, but the great constant now facing us is the question of whether the contest will be a contest of arms, or a contest of diplomacy.

There are, however, two or three points in this contest which deserve special notice on account of their being particularly characteristic of French political manners and ideas.

The first point is that the crisis is not a purely European one, but a world-wide one, and that the Monarchists of various shades, Marshal MacMahon is an honest soldier, who would have stuck to the original arrangement under which he was called to power. But he has a pretty wife, who controls him completely, and who is a thoroughgoing Monarchist.

The Monarchists, aided by the clergical party, have accordingly taken advantage of the French Republic, and are now endeavoring to bring about a change of Government. The French Republic, however, is not so easily overthrown, and the French people
